Get at KU

Get at KU connects you to the full-text of an article, as well as to database resources and Interlibrary Loan/Document Delivery.

Once you do a search and find results, look for “Get at KU”. The “Get at KU” feature is found throughout many of the library’s online resources and can connect you to citations and full-text articles available through the libraries.

1. Click on “Get at KU”, then click on the ARTICLE link.

2. Clicking on the ARTICLE link should take you to the full-text of the article.

3. Click on the PDF link to view the article as it was originally published.

Clicking on “Get at KU” should take you to the full-text of the article, but it’s not perfect and there is oftentimes no link. So what do you do then?

What if KU Libraries does not have access to the journal electronically or in print?

If KU Libraries does not have access to the article, the “Get at KU” feature will provide a direct link to order the article through Interlibrary loan.

1. Just click on “Request a loan or copy of this item”.

---

Request a copy from Interlibrary Loan

Search the Catalog
Search by ISSN/ISBN (preferred)
Search by journal/book title

More Options:
Request a copy from Interlibrary Loan
Ask a Librarian for help.
2. Login to WebRetrieve using your KU online ID and password.

3. After logging in, you should be taken to a pre-populated form with the citation data. Make sure this information is correct, then click on “Submit Request”.

This request usually takes a couple of days so be sure to start your research early. The article will be sent electronically to your email.